Salt Lake City, Utah – Salt Lake City Mission will be providing a Special Labor Day

Picnic:

Monday, September 6th 8am – 5pm.

This event will be held at Pioneer Park.

Hot Dogs, Baked Beans, Nachos; Pudding & Fruit will be served to the most needy of Utah, free of charge.

Clothing and personal care items will also be distributed.

Donations are very much needed right up to and through the event!

“This is a wonderful opportunity for the Salt Lake Community to partner with The Salt Lake City Mission in making the less fortunate and vulnerable in our area feel cared for and wanted on this holiday” said Rev. Wayne Wilson Executive Director of The Salt Lake City Mission.

“This has been a very difficult year for so many. Sad to say, we are seeing more families, including small children, on the streets, without a home.”

We want to provide a Special Labor Day for those in need.

“We expect to serve over 2,500 Meals to the poor and destitute”

###

The Salt Lake City Mission is a non-denomination Christian Church / Mission offering services to anyone in need. The Mission provides the homeless, disadvantaged and chemically dependant people in the Intermountain area with long-term recovery programs such as The Second Chance Ranch and UpWord Motion programs for men. We also provide food & clothing, as well as biblical counseling, guidance and most importantly, a way out.
